TOWN OF MANLIUS CHIEF OF POLICE – JOB DESCRIPTION

The Town of Manlius (pop. 33,712) seeks an accomplished Police Administrator with strong leadership and communication skills. Candidates shall have a demonstrated record of success in developing and maintaining effective relationships both within the community and the organization.

The Town of Manlius is a residential community of approximately 50 sq. miles, located in eastern Onondaga County, New York. The police department provides police service to the Town of Manlius and the Villages of Fayetteville, Manlius, and Minoa. The Town, which currently maintains a police force of approximately 38 full time officers and civilian support personnel, is accepting applications for the Chief of Police of the Town of Manlius Police Department (TMPD).

The TMPD is an Internationally Accredited Police Agency through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA), and a state accredited agency through the New York State Accreditation Program.

The new Chief must be a highly experienced, innovative, and engaging law enforcement professional who will embrace the values of transparency and accountability. The ideal candidate is a forward-thinking leader with a demonstrated commitment to community-oriented service and engagement at all levels. The new Chief must subscribe to a community service-based law enforcement concept, where the vision is “service with integrity that exceeds the expectations of our community.”

The Chief of Police is responsible for administering and directing the law enforcement activities of the agency. The Chief is employed by and operates under the general direction of the Manlius Town Board. The Chief also works in close contact with the general public and the respective community organizations within the area.

This position requires a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university in Criminal Justice, Public Administration, Management, or a related field. A minimum of ten (10) years of progressively responsible management in law enforcement is required. A mix of education and experience will be considered. Preference is given to candidates that have advanced degrees to include an advanced professional leadership / management academy such as the FBI National Academy or similar. Preference is also given to Town of Manlius residents.

COMPETITIVE CANDIDATES WILL POSSESS THE FOLLOWING ATTRIBUTES:

- A firm grasp of law enforcement methods and best practices and the willingness to adapt to evolving standards and practices in accordance with community needs and expectations.
- Ability to develop and maintain positive relationships with elected officials, business and community leaders, advisory boards, the news media, and the community.
- Proven ability to establish strategic planning goals.
- Respected mentor skilled in identifying, developing, motivating, and collaborating with high-quality staff to achieve effective and efficient service delivery.
- Ability to attract, support, and retain a diverse staff that reflects the community.
- Leads as a positive role model for customer service, ethical behavior, transparency, dispute resolution, and problem-solving, fostering a culture that values and respects all members of the team and the community.
- Thorough knowledge and experience of accreditation processes and procedures to include NYS Law Enforcement and CALEA.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Plan, direct, coordinate and review law enforcement activities as they relate to community need.
- Build relationships with the community, community partners.
- Manage and supervise the activities of subordinate supervisors, officers and civilians who perform line and support functions within the agency.
- Develop the annual budget and present the proposed budget to the Town Board.
- Manage the fiscal affairs of the agency and maintain operations within the approved budget.
- Formulate departmental policies, establish departmental procedures, and issue written directives to sworn and civilian personnel.
- Develop, maintain and report to the Town Board and to the Town of Manlius Police Committee on clear and concise measures of police services and operations.
- Monitor, maintain and direct accreditation processes.
- Monitor compliance of personnel with statutes and rules and regulations of the agency and maintain current training in accepted procedures and practices of law enforcement.

- Investigate complaints involving personnel, procedures or performance of the department, and initiate disciplinary or other corrective actions as necessary to both reduce liability and maintain professional standards of conduct and performance.
- Maintain contact with state and local law enforcement agencies to coordinate joint law enforcement activities and to exchange information pertaining to criminal incidents and investigations.
- Evaluate performance of personnel according to departmental standards.
- Supervise the preparation of state, federal, and local reports on police activities and criminal activity within the jurisdiction.
- Inform the public regarding departmental policies and activities to ensure public awareness and support of the department, and to foster cooperation between the citizens and the officers of the department.
- Manage, supervise and/or participate in investigations of crimes or incidents as required.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

Applicants should submit a cover letter and resume outlining how they meet the specific requirements of the position and a copy of applicant's current job description to aoot@townofmanlius.org by XXXXXXXXX.

While we sincerely appreciate all applications, only those candidates selected for interview will be contacted.
