49. 2020 Town Goals

The Town Board discussed their goals for 2020.

Councilor Waters

- The Comprehensive Planning Process is moving forward and the town will be selecting a Comprehensive Planning Firm.
- A listening session is scheduled on January 31st with Town Historian Barbara Rivette.
- Will be reviewing salaries in the Town by conducting a pay equity audit.

Councilor Deer

- Will continue to increase transparency of the town government.
- Will continue to promote resident involvement by keeping meetings accessible and reinstating the open podium for residents to have a voice.
- Thanked the town employees for how seamlessly they have handled the pandemic.

Councilor Denton

- To adopt the forthcoming Public Safety Advisory Plan that will comply with the Police Reform governors executive order 203.
- To update the town website to make it more user friendly for residents.
- Continue to Work with Sustainable Manlius to make the Town more pedestrian friendly.
- To consider how each decision the Town Board makes will impact the environment.

Councilor Kriesel

- Will continue it to exemplify bipartisanship, to exemplify what it means to work well with one another and to demonstrate that Manlius is a community for everyone.
- Will rise to the challenges we face with social justice, climate change and economic justice.
- Sustainable Manlius and Climate Change continue to be one of the most important issues.
- Fighting for equality for all of the people of Manlius no matter the color of their skin.

Councilor Bollinger

- Looking forward to moving toward more in person activities while protecting the health of both residents and businesses.

- Continue to be involved with Town projects such as Comprehensive Planning and Sustainable Manlius
- Making things more accessible for residents, help residents to understand how they fit and where they can access the information and services the town offers.

Councilor Green

- To be prepared for the unexpected but not losing focus of the role and the purpose of our good town government.

Supervisor Theobald

- Hope the board continues to work together in the same positive manner as in the past.
- Hope the board will continue with the many projects to come in 2021 with the same vigor as seen in 2020.

50. Adjournment
